Since the establishment of RPF, it has been piloting lobby and advocacy, awareness programs from local, provincial, and national to the international level for peace building, women’s empowerment, and gender justice by protecting human rights through the lens of dignified menstruation. RPF/GSCDM executed the training and orientation programs on dignified menstruation in collaboration with CBOs, and NGOs at the ground level with the objective of minimizing the percentage of GBVs at the national level through DMC Nepal and at the international level through GSCDM.

A Series of social media campaigning, webinars, online-offline training, and guest lectures at national and international universities next to national & international level was alleged to urge the urgency of dignified menstruation.

The main focus of RPF/GSCDM is to highlight the under-shadowed & ignored discriminations around menstruation. RPF/GSCDM is moving forward from day one to change the narratives and perspectives at an individual and societal level on menstruation from SHAME to DIGNITY. UN Agencies, Benefactor Organizations, and INGOs prioritize health & sanitation and undermine the stigma, taboos, discriminations, abuses, and violence associated with menstruation.

With the objective of advocating and creating a movement on the urgency of dialogue on Dignified Menstruation in Asia and Beyond, RPF/GSDCM in collaboration with AHF marked International Girls Child Day (October 11, 2022) and 4th International Day on Dignified Menstruation (December 8, 2022) to reinforce UN Agencies for declaring December 8 as an International Day on Dignified Menstruation.

Correspondingly, the immersion of the Rotary Club of Bhaktapur, in the campaign of Dignified Menstruation sensitizes other international clubs about the insistence on dignified menstruation in the current situation.

Interaction with different stakeholders, media persons, interfaith leaders, policymakers, child rights activists, and women rights activists is a key activity of RPF/GSCDM at national and international levels to dismantle the discrimination, stigma, and taboos associated with menstruation.

Somehow, RPF/GSCDM is struggling to demonstrate, menstrual discrimination as the root cause of all forms of gender-based violence focusing on child marriage. Emphasizing the aim of UN of eliminating child marriage by the end of 2030, RPF/GSCDM piloted research on the “Nexus between Menstrual Discrimination and Child Marriage”, Research Paper.

The pandemic of COVID-19, wars, and natural disasters anything around this universe could not stop the menstruation cycle, thus RPF/GSCDM urges all the local, provincial, national, and international organizations, governments, political leaders, and influencers at both national and international levels to start the dialogue on Dignified Menstruation going beyond Hygiene and Sanitation.
Introduction

Radha Paudel Foundation (RPF) is a non-governmental, non-political, non-profit organization (2016) and works for Peace, Human Rights, Empowerment, Dignified Menstruation, Gender Justice, and Livelihood with the fundamental belief- All people are special regardless of caste, class or gender. Discrimination against anyone is discrimination against everyone.
RPF is working as Secretariat for the Global South Coalition for Dignified Menstruation (2019) & Dignified Menstruation Campaign Nepal (2021) for doing lobby and advocating at the global level and national levels.
The Foundation simplifies the protection of human rights (women, girls, disabilities, and LGBTIQ) and their empowerment through education and advocacy on Dignified Menstruation.

VMO (Vision Mission and Objectives):

Vision:
Emancipation for girls, women, and everyone from poverty, injustices, discrimination, and violence at all organs of society

Mission: Five `E`
  - Educate to deconstruct the social evils and malpractices around gender justice.
  - Engage boys and men for gender equality, peace, and human right.
  - Empower girls, women, and everyone from marginalized communities politically, economically, socially, environmentally, and in other dimensions of the state.
  - Enrich the capacity of the team, partners, and concerned stakeholders for transformational approaches.
  - Enhanced networks, coalitions, and alliances for sustained policy advocacy across all levels.

  - Miteri Approach
  - Social Business
  - Movement Building
  - Accountability
Key Approaches

a. Bee Approach:
Involvement of the central segment of the society; CSOs, Media, Political Leaders, Interfaith Leaders, Women & Men Leaders, etc. in-order to dismantle the discrimination around menstruation and form a dignified menstruation-friendly environment. No loopholes or gaps in discriminating against women/girls because of menstruation.

b. Three ‘E’ Approach:
Education: Enlightening menstrual discrimination as the underlying cause of GBV sensitizes all *primary actors to dismantle the discrimination around menstruation.
Empowerment: Survivors of menstrual discrimination and any form of GBV struggle themselves to survive in the community. Our motive is to empower them, make them capable to stand up for themselves, and say NO to all forms of discrimination and violence.
Emancipate: Half of the population of this planet is restricted to utilize fundamental rights because of menstruation. RPF/GSCDM works to emancipate them from all types of restrictions and set them free to live their life with full dignity.

*Primary Actors: CSOs, Media, Political Leaders, Interfaith Leaders, Women & Men leaders, etc.
c. Ecological Approach:
RPF/GSCDM believes changes should be started from an individual level which will automatically transform to the family level then after the changes take place at the community level which will re-transform at the national level. Thus, start the CHANGE at your level 1st.

*Primary Actors: CSOs, Media, Political Leaders, Interfaith Leaders, Women & Men leaders, etc.

Building Knowledge, Raising Awareness

RPF/GSCDM is building knowledge and raising awareness through the National FM; Nepal FM Network in all 7 provinces of Nepal. Jingles on dignified menstruation, interaction with different political leaders, stakeholders including disabilities & LGBTIQA communities, sportspersons, media persons, interfaith leaders, men/women activists, and departmental heads from Universities are the tools to raise awareness on the urgency of dignified menstruation.

Role of Private Sectors:

RPF/GSCDM has incorporated with Kathmandu Guest House and Jyoti Bikash Bank Ltd. to initiate the dialogue on Dignified Menstruation through their Corporate Social Responsibility. These collaborations emphasize the menstrual practices in the cities areas like Kathmandu that highlighted the life-threatening situation of women and girls arising due to menstrual discrimination. This alliance has reinforced the private sector to be vocal about dignified menstruation to create a Dignified Menstruation friendly environment.
Commemoration

RPF/GSCDM believes 365 days of a year is to be celebrate for menstruation; as this planet exists because of menstruation. Though, we emphasized 2 major days:

a. International Girls Child Day (October 11)

The support of AHF has accompanied International Girl’s Child Day this year. RPF/GSCDM takes this opportunity to as a learning exchange between 2 organizations whose working has an indifferent working area. Virtual Interaction program on dignified menstruation has sensitized young girls from Cambodia, the Philippines, and beyond Asia on the urgency of dignified menstruation.

a. 4th International Day on Dignified Menstruation (December 8)

This year RPF/GSCDM along with the 47 member countries of AHF, marked 4th IDDM appealing to the UN Agencies to declare December 8 as an IDDM with the slogan of “Dignified Menstruation for Ending Child Marriage”. The participation from Cambodia, the Philippines, North America, Sierra Leone, and Uganda highlighted the earnestness of dignified menstruation going beyond hygiene and sanitation during menstruation.
Movement through Social Media

RPF/GSCDM continuously perform the movement on dignified menstruation through social media. Live webinars, and social media campaigning are the riggings factors to do lobby and advocacy at the national level and international levels. Amplifying the voices from all around the world through the webinar/the conference sustenance the world to divert from hygiene and sanitation towards the dignity of menstrurators.
